IN THE MATTER OF THE SUSPENSION
OR REVOCATION OF THE LICENSE OF

DANIEL C. GOLDBERG, Ph.D.

TO PRACTICE PSYCHOLOGY IN THE
STATE OF NEW JERSEY

Administrative Action

INTERIM ORDER OF SURRENDER

This matter was opened to the State Board of Psychological Examiners upon notification that respondent had been arrested on a and charged with a single count of sexual assault upon a patient. The Board finding the within interim disposition adequately protective of the public health, safety and welfare,

IT IS on this 14 day of August 1997:

ORDERED:

1. Respondent, Daniel C. Goldberg, Ph.D., hereby voluntarily surrenders his license for a period of 90 days effective September 8, 1997.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph one, respondent hereby agrees that he shall not resume the practice of psychology or psychoanalysis until further order of the Board. The Board shall not unreasonably delay consideration of this matter, after the expiration of the 90 day period.

3. Respondent is hereby permitted a window of time within which to wind down his private practice. That period of time commences August 4, 1997 and ends September 7, 1997, however, respondent shall refrain from the practice of psychology from August 11 through 24, as respondent has represented that during this period of time his practice would be closed.

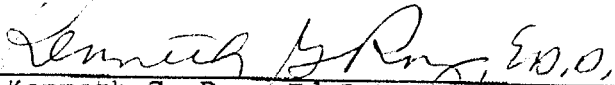

4. At the conclusion of the wind down period provided for in paragraph three, respondent shall forthwith provide to the Board a list of all of his patients and as to each patient (identified by initials) state: (1) the working diagnosis; (2) whether respondent was providing psychoanalytical services or other clinical services; (3) to whom the patient was referred upon cessation of respondent's practice.

5. During the wind down period, respondent shall accept no new patients and shall not endeavor to treat the medical condition, vaginismus.

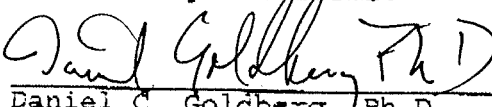

6. Respondent hereby waives any legal objection claiming prosecutorial delay.

7. Respondent shall comply with the Directives Regarding Future Activities attached hereto and made a part hereof.

STATE BOARD OF PSYCHOLOGICAL EXAMINERS

Kenneth G. Roy, Ed.D., President

I have read and understood the foregoing Order and agree to be bound by its terms.
